PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

- The average cost of counseling services is $100-150 per session. We ask our clients to give a minimum donation of $20 per session.
- The services at Peace Restored are not free, instead they are set to work within your budget while allowing us to operate. We require all clients to contribute to the organization.
- We ask that you work with our Client Liaison to determine your agreed donation per session.
- If you are unable to meet the minimum donation of $20 per session, other giving options will need to be established. If you have questions about the options, please ask.

Peace Restored, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit organization that relies on donations to continue the work we do. Without your giving, what we do is not possible. Thank you for giving so that you and the other women we serve can continue to receive quality care.
